

TEAM MANAGER TECHNICAL MEETING MINUTES

TUESDAY 20 AUGUST 2024

Alan Bell: couldn't believe what he saw yesterday: so many spectators came to watch the famous skier Ingmar Stenmark take part in Pole Vault.

Michael Serralta: there were four written questions for today:

- about an athlete who registered too late: he couldn't compete
- starting heights of Pole Vault: Sandy: these heights are determined by the entries; so the athletes who need the lowest height can set a mark
- one athlete at 5.000m. was overlapped several times by the other athletes; he delayed the competition. There should be a cut time for this kinds of athletes.
- USA: athletes can practice (ONLY relays) on Saturday from 16.30 at Skottsslogsvallen

There was an issues about the results of the Combined Events M50 (High Jump was not going in) the scoring was incorrect (nobody complaint after the first day). The results are updated now and posted.

Alan Bell: Only accredited Team Managers can hand in a Team Managers Meeting Form (athletes are not allowed to do so).

Gr. Br.: yesterday there was a medical issue and there was no doctor at the stadium.

Eva-Lena Frick: the times of the medal presentations on Sunday will be announced on Thursday.

There are still poles missing.

She has a good, warmly, personally feeling with "her heart for sports" about yesterday. Such a famous skier, competing in another 'technical difficult' event. The media was everywhere when Stenmark was competing. Masters sport is important!

Sandy: there are 11 World Records and 60 Championship Records.
